Airport Concessions

What's this all about?

A concession is a right to sell products and/or services within a certain venue such as a stadium, mall or airport. West Houston Airport is a good example of a venue in which ALL aviation related concessions, such as, maintenance shops, avionics, fuel sales, aircraft sales, flight schools, detailers and other commercial aviation related ops are granted by the airport, subject to certain conditions.

All properties at West Houston including lots are restricted in such a manner as to require an approval by the Airport and/or Association for operations by aviation enterprises. As part of the properties, only "Licensed" and approved commercial aviation activities can be conducted. In order to obtain an approval, the Airport and in certain cases the Association/s may approve such activities as charter, aircraft sales, aircraft servicing including washing and detailing must be approved in writing prior to such operations being conducted on the Airport.

Approvals are based on need for such service/sales operation, experience of management, location, insurance, federal, state and local regulations compliance and assessment of any pollutants and/or chemicals used on site (Federal Storm Water Discharge Issues). At the present time, the following approved, non-exclusive concessions have been granted at IWS:

General Avionics	Avionics Sales/Repair/Installation
Sky Aircraft Interiors	Aircraft Upholstery
Feathered Edge Aviation	Aircraft Maintenance, Repairs
Fast Freddy Mobile Detail	Aircraft Cleaning/Detailing
PHI Helicopters/Air Med	Helicopter Maintenance
Leading Edge Helicopters	Helicopter Tours
Dr. Victor Arellano	Airman Medical Examiner
VTAAA	Professional Flight Training

Customers based at IWS are NOT OBLIGATED TO UTILIZE the services of these concessions. It is however prohibited to "invite" any competitors to the Airport to perform services that the above operations provide. Owners may perform legal maintenance on their planes including cleaning, but they cannot utilize an off airport service that is invited by them to IWS to perform services available at IWS. Cancellation of airport privileges is one of the penalties imposed for breach of these Airport Rules. The Airport appreciates your adherence to these rules.
